

Fishing at Dalälven river, Älvkarleby

The Valley of Dalälven River is situated in the central Sweden, and is perfectly suited for fishing. The natural surroundings of the river with lots of lakes, meadows and swamps provide different possibilities for fishing. Here you can catch pike, perch and walleye. Pike larger than 100 centimeters is a common phenomenon in this area, and the largest freshwater pike was caught in the river in 2010.

Älvkarleby is situated at the mouth of the Dalälven river. It's famous for its fast currents and rapids. It is a perfect place for sport fishing in the rapids. The most part of the salmon and trout caught in Sweden is caught here. The biggest salmon caught in the running water in the country was caught here, it's weight was 27,97 kg. Every year about 800-1300 fishes are caught here with average weight of 9-10 kg. The catch of sea trout is about 4-5 thousand per year, with an average weight of 2 kg.

Lakes that are situated on the both sides of the river are rich with perch, walleye and pike. There are more than 30 species of fish in this area.

Everybody will be able to have a great catch here, whenever it's a professional or amateur.
